Sorority History

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated was founded in 1913 by 22 students at Howard University. These young women wanted to use their collective strength to promote academic excellence; provide scholarships; provide support to the underserved; educate and stimulate participation in the establishment of positive public policy; highlight issues; and provide solutions for problems in their communities.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated is a private, non-profit organization whose purpose is to aid and support through established programs in local communities throughout the world. A sisterhood of more than 300,000 predominately Black college-educated women, the Sorority currently has over 900 chapters located in the United States, England, Japan (Tokyo and Okinawa), Germany, the Virgin Islands, Bermuda, the Bahamas, the Republic of Korea, the Arabian Gulf and Southern Africa.

Delta Delta Sigma Chapter, now Tuscaloosa Alumnae Chapter, was organized in March 1949 by Clemmie Webber of South Carolina who was the Southeastern Regional Director. In May of 1950, Delta Delta Sigma Chapter was chartered. There are currently 173 chapter members.
